Chambers USA Law Directory Names The Wyche Law Firm
Among Leading South Carolina Law Firms

GREENVILLE, SC: Wyche Burgess Freeman & Parham, P.A. has been named a leading law firm in corporate law, mergers and acquisitions and commercial litigation in South Carolina in the recently published 2010 edition of Chambers USA America's Leading Lawyers for Business.

Chambers cites Cary Hall for his corporate and tax law practice, including major deals in the manufacturing and restaurant industries; Eric B. Amstutz, for his practice with public and private companies, advising boards of directors of several public companies, as well as acting for developers on major construction industry deals, Wallace Lightsey for his intellectual property, media, first amendment and copyright practice; Henry Parr, who acts for both plaintiffs and defendants in complex commercial matters, including antitrust, securities and healthcare litigation; Carl Muller, who also represents plaintiffs and defendants in healthcare, media and first amendment litigation; and Troy Tessier, for his work representing copyright holders in architectural copyright infringement matters.

Chambers USA's opinions are gathered from in-depth telephone interviews with in-house counsel and other purchasers of legal services and are balanced with opinions from colleagues and competitors. For the current United States directory, over 10,000 interviews covering the entire United States were conducted by a team of 40 full-time researchers over a period of 8 months.

Wyche Burgess Freeman & Parham, P. A. is the South Carolina member of Lex Mundi, the world's leading association of independent law firms.
