Wyche Names Maurie Lawrence to Membership

Wyche Burgess Freeman & Parham, P.A. law firm announced today that Maurie Lawrence has been made a member of the firm.

Ms. Lawrence concentrates her practice on commercial real estate development, including horizontal and vertical mixed-use projects, retail and office parks, resort developments, residential subdivisions, and other planned communities. She assists clients with contracting for or optioning of raw land, obtaining governmental permits and approvals, subdivision, federal and state interstate land sales and other regulations, and transition phases to associations. She has substantial experience in complex development agreements, including development partnerships.

Ms. Lawrence is a 1998 graduate of Smith College with high honors; she also holds a Diploma in Urban Policy from the University of Glasgow. She earned her law degree from the Georgetown University Law Center in 2003 and joined Wyche in the same year. (Click here for Maurie's full profile on the Wyche website).

Ms. Lawrence has served on the Board of Directors of the YWCA since 2004 and is currently serving as President. She is President of CREW Upstate South Carolina, a professional networking organization for women in commercial real estate. She is a member of Leadership Greenville, Class 36 and volunteers for the Greenville Hospital System's Office of Philanthropy. She has served as a Legislative Advocate for CureSearch/National Childhood Cancer Foundation, on the United Way of Greenville, Helping Youth Succeed Impact Council and the Steering Committee of the Women's Empowerment Center.
