Greenville Attorney Named Secretary/Treasurer

Submitted by Jenny Brown

The Bar Foundation is pleased to announce Wallace K. Lightsey as Secretary/Treasurer of its Board of Directors. Lightsey, of Wyche Burgess Freeman & Parham, PA graduated from Duke University and received his JD from Harvard Law School. After law school, Lightsey clerked for Judge John Minor Wisdom of the United States Court of Appeals as well as for Chief Justice Warren E. Burger of the US Supreme Court the next year. Lightsey's practice focuses on civil litigation with an emphasis on commercial, corporate and news media litigation. He has received the highest professional rating for lawyers and has been listed numerous times in The Best Lawyers in America. In 2004, Lightsey was inducted into the American College of Trial Lawyers. He is admitted to the SC Bar, US District Court of South Carolina, US Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit and the US Supreme Court.

The Bar Foundation is the only statewide entity that funds the advancement of justice by improving access, education and accountability.
